

JEFFERSON
EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY

Erie's Think Tank for Community Progress

3207 State St. Erie, PA 16508

814-459-8000

www.jeserie.org

Advanced registration is required for all JES events. Tickets will not be sold at or during events. Payments must be made at registration. Visa, MasterCard, AMEX, and Discover accepted. Cash payments are no longer accepted by the Jefferson.

All JES programming is free to all Erie County students with advanced registration and proof of enrollment at event check-in. To register with the student discount, use the coupon code "eriecountystudents" and make sure to bring proof of enrollment to the programs for which you register.

History of Human Experience Series: What It Means to be Human

Monday, July 8; 7-8:30pm

Free (Registration Required)

Join us as we kick off our Summer Term with Global Summit Alumni, Robert Garland, Ph.D.! He will be with us for a week as a Visiting Speaker-in-Residence. This is the first in a series of talks on the History of Human Experience.

History of Human Experience Series

Tuesday, July 9; 7-8:30pm

Wednesday, July 10; 7-8:30pm

Thursday, July 11; 7-8:30pm

Friday, July 12; 12-1:30pm

$15 (Additional Guest $10)

Continue the series the History of Human Experience with visiting Speaker-in-Residence Robert Garland, Ph.D.

·7/9 The Many and the One: God versus the Gods

·7/10 The Roots and Fruits of Misogyny

·7/11 A Short History of Death and The Afterlife

·7/12 East Versus West

Celebrating National Black Business Month: Exploring the Impact and Stories of Erie's Black Wall Street, Cafe 7-10, and Zenedge

Thursday, August 8; 7-8:30pm

Free (Registration Required)

August is National Black History Month. In celebration of Black-owned and operated businesses, hear from three leaders in Erie's BIPOC community, as Executive Director Kyra Taylor discusses Erie's Black Wall Street, and business owners Mabel Howard and Marva Morris showcase Café 7-10 and Zenedge Energy Drinks.